

The Prophet Isaiah

A study of the prophecy of Isaiah, the son of Amoz who prophesied during the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. This great prophet was called of God in his youth to "cry aloud and spare not." His willing answer was, "Here am I send me." For nearly sixty years he proclaimed the will of the "Holy One of Israel" to a "sinful nation, laden with iniquity." His was a message of repentance, retribution and restoration. This beautiful book that announces the coming Messiah and His eternal kingdom in sixty-six chapters is studied in twenty-six lessons. Emphasis is given to the historical background of the book and the prophetic announcements of the coming Christ, the Lord of Glory.
