
preached the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ... Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done" (Acts 8:12-13). When Simon saw the genuine power of God, he, along with many others, gave up his religious scam. I pray to God that people of our day will soon give up on "faith healers" and "healing ministries," and put their faith and trust in God.

What About You?

I am sure this tract will sound quite harsh to many. If I know my own heart, it was not written in anger, but out of love for the souls of men. I am tired of seeing "faith healers" take advantage of good people. I know they claim the power is not in them, but in God. However, I deny that God uses these men to carry out His will today. The age of spiritual gifts passed with the completion of the New Testament (1 Corinthians 13:8-10). God will allow people to "believe a lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness" (2 Thes. 2:11-12).

Our Proposition

We are not ashamed of the truth. We are willing to defend what we teach in public. Is your preacher? If you disagree with what we have said in this tract, please ask your preacher if he is willing to engage in a public debate concerning spiritual gifts in our day. We are willing to publicly defend the following proposition:

"The Scriptures teach that the Holy Spirit baptism of Acts two and the signs and miracles of the New Testament, especially as mentioned in 1 Corinthians 12, have ceased."

If we are false teachers, we need to be publicly exposed as such. The God we serve does not want men to hide behind a pulpit. The apostle Paul was set "for the defense of the gospel" (Philippians 1:17). We have put on the gospel armor and are ready to "stand against the wiles of the devil" (Eph. 6:11). ✠

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1)

The Truth About ~~Faith~~ Fake Healers

© 2001 David Padfield
www.padfield.com

David Padfield

The Truth About Fake Healers

Every generation has had to contend with flimflam men and con artists. A century ago they came in the guise of rain makers and snake oil salesmen. Today, this genre has found a home in charismatic churches.

One of the greatest stories of conversion in the book of Acts involved a shyster called Simon the sorcerer. Luke records his conversion with these words:

“But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously practiced sorcery in the city and astonished the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great, to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is the great power of God.” And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his sorceries for a long time. But when they believed Philip as he preached the things concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done” (Acts 8:9–13).

Prior to his conversion, Simon would have made a good Pentecostal preacher. He could have had his own cable TV show. He would have looked at home on a stage with Jimmy Swaggart, Oral Roberts or Benny Hinn.

Simon the sorcerer had everything going for him. His credentials as a “faith healer” would have been impressive. Let’s notice a few things about his life.

Great Claims

Acts 8:9 tells us Simon claimed that “he was someone great.” Every Pentecostal preacher I have ever met claimed some miraculous power. I’ve heard of folks in padded cells claiming to be Napoleon or Adolf Hitler. But these charismatic preachers claim to have a hot-line to the Almighty! Great claims mean absolutely nothing. Simon the sorcerer made great claims, but he was a fraud.

Large Numbers

The residents of Samaria “all gave heed” to Simon (Acts 8:10). Preachers who command a large audience really impress some folks. No doubt, they would have loved the prophets of Baal at Mt. Carmel (1 Kings 18:19–20). Just because a preacher has a large following it does not mean he is pleasing to God. Simon the sorcerer had a large following, but he was a shyster!

Influential Followers

Simon’s followers came from all classes, from “the least to the greatest” (Acts 8:10). Some people get really excited when a famous politician or Hollywood star is a member of their church. While God is not a respecter of persons (Acts 10:34), some so-called Christians are. Simon had “great” people follow him, but he was a charlatan!

Moving Testimonials

If you dared to question the claims of Simon, he would have provided you with a list of folks willing to give personal testimony about his ability. The people of Samaria said, “This man is the great power of God” (Acts 8:10). Every Pentecostal church I have ever attended had several folks ready to give moving personal testimony about some alleged miracle. Simon the sorcerer had many testimonials, but he was a flimflam man!

Astonishing Feats

Simon was able to “astonish them with his sorceries” (Acts 8:11). Simon’s sleight of hand and Houdini-like powers amazed many individuals. Like modern charismatic preachers, Simon could probably cure everything from headaches to vertigo. Of course, Simon could not make the lame to walk or raise the dead like the apostles (Acts 3:6; 9:40), but neither can any man today. The whole time Simon was astonishing the people he was nothing but a fraud!

Long Time Resident

Simon was not a new-comer to Samaria. He had been able to dupe the people “for a long time” (Acts 8:11). Some folks think longevity in a town is proof that God is with you. Some even brag that their church established the town. Well, Simon was a long time resident of Samaria, but he was an impostor!

His Conversion

We are grateful to God that when the people of Samaria “believed Philip as he

www.padfield.com

Sermon Outlines
Bible Class Books
Bible Class Curriculum
PowerPoint Backgrounds
Bible Land Photographs
Church Bulletin Articles

This booklet is protected by Federal Copyright Laws. Individuals and local congregations are allowed to reprint this book. No one is allowed change the contents. This book may not be placed on any other Web site, nor is it allowed to be sold.